THE CALTECH ARCHIVES

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

ACCESS TO COLLECTIONS: The Caltech Archives houses unique manuscript, pictorial, book and artifact collections in the history of science. An overview of the collections and information on how to access them is available online at: <http://archives.caltech.edu>

On-site use of the collections is by appointment only. Scholars and other qualified researchers without Caltech affiliation may apply for access to the collections by creating an Archives account at <https://docuserve.library.caltech.edu/aeon/>. In some cases, supporting documents may be requested from the prospective researcher. All patrons will be requested to review and accept Terms and Conditions of Access and will be held responsible for observing them. For information on the reproduction of archival materials, please see the form GUIDELINES FOR REPRODUCING ARCHIVAL MATERIALS. Additional information about the Archives' policies and services may be found on the website: <http://archives.caltech.edu/access/index.html>

HOURS AND DIRECTIONS: The Caltech Archives are open to researchers by appointment on weekdays during the hours of 8:30 to 11:45 AM and 1 to 4 PM. We are closed on weekends and institute holidays. The Archives is located on campus in the Beckman Institute sub-basement, room 015. The Beckman Institute faces Wilson Avenue south of the intersection with Del Mar Boulevard. It is building #74 on Caltech's map: http://archives.caltech.edu/access/caltech_map.pdf. Elevators are located in the NE and SW entrance lobbies.

PARKING: Self-serve paid visitor parking is available on campus, and spaces are usually available in Lots 12 and 13 on the north campus (pay station in Lot 12). Parking permits must be displayed in vehicles parked on campus between 7 AM and 5 PM, Monday through Friday. The rates are:

1 hour permit: $2	3 hour permit: $4
2 hour permit: $3	4 hour permit: $5
All day permit: $6	Weekly permit: $18

A parking map is available at:

https://www.parking.caltech.edu/documents/35-interactive_parking_map.pdf.

Visitors should park in lots coded for commuter parking only. Some restricted parking is available on adjacent streets.

LAPTOP COMPUTERS: Caltech operates a "Caltech guest" wireless network. Off-campus users may connect to this network by following the instructions at this site:
