

GUIDELINES FOR REPRODUCING ARCHIVAL MATERIALS

GENERAL GUIDELINES: The following guidelines apply to all copies of archival materials.

Copies are provided to individual researchers for the purpose of study only, unless otherwise specified in writing. The publication in any medium of materials that are the property of Caltech is prohibited without prior written permission from the Caltech Archives.

No complete collection may be copied.

The Caltech Archives reserves the right to review all copy requests and to withhold permission to copy if, in the professional judgment of the archivist or curator, copying would endanger the material; would violate copyright law; would violate donor-imposed or institutional restrictions; or would impose undue burden upon the Archives' staff and other patrons.

Materials available for consultation online, such as through the Archives' PhotoNet, will not be reproduced for study purposes or made available for digital photography.

COPYRIGHT INFORMATION:

COPYRIGHT NOTICE: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproductions in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

AVAILABLE REPRODUCTION MEDIA:

§ SELF-SERVICE COPYING: Researchers may apply for permission to create digital photographs of manuscript material. Researchers are asked to limit copies to a maximum of 300 pages per twelve-month period or per project, whichever takes longer.

§ PHOTOCOPY: There is no self-service photocopy in the Caltech Archives. Researchers may apply for single-copy photocopies made by the Archives' staff. Researchers are asked to limit copies to a maximum of 300 pages per twelve-month period or per project, whichever takes longer. The current charge for archival photocopies is $0.45 per page, with a $10.00 minimum charge. Additionally, postage and handling charges may be applied. Processing of photocopy requests may require four to six weeks.

§ DIGITAL SCANS: Researchers may request digital scans of images and texts made by Archives' staff. A preparation fee of $25.00 will be applied to each order. Page limits on large text files may apply. Individual files will be priced at $10.00 each. Scans may be e-mailed or copied to CD and sent by regular mail or by Federal Express if an account number is supplied.

§ PHOTO LAB SERVICES: Caltech maintains a professional quality photo lab. Photographic print copies of archival photos and some other materials may be obtained through the lab. Please request information on sizes, finishes, and prices. The typical charge for an 8 x 10 glossy or matte photo is $10.00. An additional postage and handling fee of $10.00 is applied to each photo order.
